

Dr. Valeria Montanari

University of Rome La Sapienza

Graduated in Architecture, PhD in Conservation of architectural heritage, Specialist in Restoration of monuments, Research associate at the Department of History, Design and Restoration of Architecture, La Sapienza University of Rome, where she carried out a three-year research activity as a research fellow. She is responsible for the course of Teoria e tecnica del restauro at the Faculty of Architecture, La Sapienza University of Rome. In 2018, she qualified as an associate professor.

From 2002 to 2011, she was a lecturer in “Restauro architettonico” at the Faculty of Letters and Philosophy, La Sapienza University of Rome.

From 2012 to 2018, she was curator of the six editions of the seminars “Dialoghi intra architettura” (interdisciplinary meetings on issues concerning restoration, architecture and landscape contexts).

Since 2013 she has held seminars on current methods of historical research in architecture.

Since 2020, as part of the PhD course in History, Design and Restoration of Architecture, she has been delivering lectures on the genesis, interpretation and criticism of documentary sources.

She has participated in national and international conferences as a speaker. She is the author of numerous publications on the history, theory and restoration of architecture. She participates, as a group member, in various scientific researches, she is a member of editorial boards and also carries out peer review activities for scientific journals.